

Known to many little listeners as “Mister Mark,” Mark Burrows tours the nation, presenting high-energy concerts for children and families. Mark also writes extensively for video, television and the stage. His four children’s albums have won a total of nine national awards. Many of his songs, including the much-requested Bruce Weiner, Zoo Dentist, can be heard on Sirius XM Radio. Amazon Rock was recently recorded by Nick Records for a Dora the Explorer album.

Mark Burrows received his undergraduate degree in music education from Southern Methodist University and his graduate degree in conducting from Texas Christian University. He directs choral ensembles of all ages and oversees programs in visual arts and theater. Mark is currently the Director of Children’s Ministries at First United Methodist Church – Fort Worth where he leads the weekly Children’s Messages, as well as a monthly worship service for children and families called “Children First.” Prior to his work in Fort Worth, Mark was a music teacher at Stephen C. Foster Elementary School in Dallas, Texas.

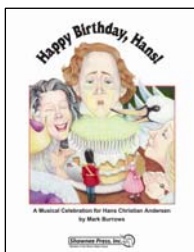

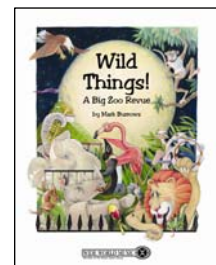

Mister Mark has written music and curriculum for numerous major publishers, including Shawnee Press. His music and lyrics are always fun, smart, and memorable, making them wonderful teaching tools for the early elementary classroom! Mark resides in Fort Worth, Texas with his wife, Nina, and daughters, Emma and Grace.
